ABOUT THE CITY.

F. F. Crans of Cable is at the Montana. J. C. Savory of Des Moines, Iowa, is a Montana guest.

County Auditor Hoss was up from Deer Lodge yesterday for a few hours.

Mrs. A. L. Trisberger and children leave today for Dayton, Wash., on a visit to her parents.

All officers of the Oxford club are requested to meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Smith Drug company's store.

At the Christian church today, Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Preaching every night this week. Good singing, led by F. E. Davis.

Tracklayers on the B. & P. R. R. have reached the trestle over the Montana Union tracks at the mouth of Silver Bow canyon, and will soon reach Anaconda.

Visiting members of L. A. of M. are requested to meet with the members of the local lodge, in Mattie block hall on First street, at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, to take part in the Labor day parade.

Preaching services will be held at the Methodist church today at 11 o'clock a. m. and at 8 p. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. The Epworth league meets at 7 p. m. Rev. F. Lowry, pastor.

Mrs. Hugh Daly left last evening on a visit to her grandparents at Lake Champlain, New York. On her way East she will stop a month in Chicago to visit friends and attend the world's fair. Mrs. Daly will be absent from Anaconda several weeks.

The kid bicycle contest at the Labor day picnic to-morrow afternoon, promises to be a corker. Three or four youngsters swear by the eternal that there will be no flaking—the race will be on the square. The prize is a boy's bicycle, presented by R. M. Greig.

If all parties at Dillon and Lima holding tickets to the B. of R. T. dance on Sept. 13 will forward them to H. H. Hamilton, Anaconda, they will receive a refund of their money. Owing to the death of Brother C. W. Edwards, the date has been indefinitely postponed.

A game of ball will be played at the park to-day between the Capital City team and the clerks of the Copper City store. The personnel of the latter is not known, but they claim they have mustered a team that will give the old club a hard rub. Kildea and Griffith will constitute the battery for the Capitals.

No teams will be allowed inside the Anaconda park to-morrow, as the managers of the Labor day celebration say it will tax the capacity of the Park to accommodate the large crowd of men, women and children, and there will be no room for vehicles of any kind. You must leave your horse on the outside or at home.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered during morning service in the Presbyterian church. All Christians are made welcome to partake. Evening service will take place at 8 p. m. The Sabbath school meets at morning service, and Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:45 p. m. Those persons who propose uniting with the church will please meet at 10:30 a. m. William Clyde, pastor.

Hon. John R. Walkup, "the gentleman from Deer Lodge," without any equivocation, evasion or hesitation, answered "No, sir!" with emphasis on the first word, when the reporter asked him yesterday if there would be another balloon "ascension" at the park to-day. He said he would not have anything to do with aeronauts hereafter, not even if 500 ex-Philadelphians living in Anaconda, asked him to. There will be no dancing at the park to-day.

Whereas my wife, Sarah Helen Perkins, has lost my bed and board without just cause or provocation, I hereby warn all persons that I will pay no debts of her contracting.
 JOHN PERKINS.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE

Labor Day Will Be Observed in a Fitting Manner in Anaconda.

HON. IGNATIUS DONNELLY

The Great Orator and Scholar Will Speak at the Park-Line of March of the Monster Parade—Decorations.

Labor day will be celebrated in Anaconda to-morrow in a manner never before attempted in Montana. Every labor organization in the city, and thousands of members of similar societies from Butte and all over the state, will take part in the parade in the morning and the exercises at the park in the afternoon and evening. The bank and leading business houses of the city will close all day, and hundreds of men employed at the upper and lower works, Tuttle's Manufacturing and Supply company, the railroad shops and other large establishments will be given a holiday. A double arch has been erected at the intersection of Main and First streets, and merchants along First street began to decorate their buildings yesterday afternoon, and by evening Main and First streets presented a regular Fourth of July appearance. Flags, large and small, bunting and evergreen were in big demand yesterday, and by to-morrow morning it is expected that every store will be decorated in honor of the day and the guests of the city—the workmen of Montana, with their wives, sisters, daughters or sweethearts. A number of our citizens intend to decorate their residences also. The parade starts from the depot at 10 o'clock, with Capt. John Barry as grand marshal, assisted by three aids, C. A. Myers, James H. Hoy, and Lawrence Gaffney. Each organization will have a captain of its own. The line of march is as follows: Front on Main to Third; east on Third to Chestnut; north on Chestnut to Front; west on Front to Main; south on Main to First; east on First to Cedar; south on Cedar to Park avenue; west on Park avenue to the park.

The parade has been divided into two divisions and it will be made up about as follows:

FIRST DIVISION—FORM ON MAIN STREET.
 Police force.
 Wolfe Tone Guards.
 Silver Bow band.
 Butte Miners' union.
 Other unions of Butte.
 Other unions of the state.
 K. of L. of Butte.
 K. of L. of other parts of the state.
 Carriages containing speakers, Mayors Thornton and Duggan, Peter Brech, Ignatius Donnelly.

SECOND DIVISION—FORM ON W. FRONT STREET.
 Copper City band.
 Anaconda Typographical union.
 Federated Labor union.
 Carpenters' union.
 Machinists' union.
 Builders' union.
 Molders' union.
 R. of R. T.
 Other civic societies of Anaconda.
 A. O. H.—East Front near Main.
 St. Peter and St. Paul's—East Front.
 Clerks' assembly—East Front.
 Cooks & Waiters' assembly—East Front.
 W. R. Morley assembly—On Main street.
 Citizens in carriages.

The speech making takes place in the park immediately after the parade is over. A temporary speakers' platform has been erected east of the band stand, the orators facing the east, and seats enough to accommodate 1,500 people have been constructed by carpenters during the past two days. They are protected from the sun's rays by the many shade trees around about, and the cool and refreshing breezes from the lake will be on hand as usual. Mayor Thornton will deliver the address of welcome, and Hon. Peter Brech of Butte will respond in behalf of the visitors. Then Ignatius Donnelly, the famous orator and scholar, delivers the oration of the day. It is hardly necessary to say that he will face a large crowd, or that he is an entertaining talker—everybody knows that.

An excellent programme of sports will follow the orations, and dancing and other amusements in the pavilion during the evening.

No intoxicating liquors will be sold on the grounds.

DEGREE OF HONOR.

It Will Be Instituted Monday Afternoon in Masonic Hall.

A Degree of Honor lodge, A. O. U. W., will be instituted at Masonic hall, Standard building, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. The lodge starts off under most auspicious circumstances with about 40 charter members. The occasion to-morrow afternoon will be a notable one on account of the presence of the grand lodge officers. They are: Past grand chief of honor, Mrs. Laura Clark of Butte; grand chief of honor, Mrs. Rose Shanlanker of South Butte; lady of honor, Mrs. Collins of Livingston; chief of ceremonies, Mrs. Conrad of Marysville; grand recorder, Mrs. H. B. Hunter of Helena; grand receiver, Mrs. Lillian M. Smith of Butte; grand usher, Mrs. Hickey of Victor; grand inside warden, Miss Blair of Grant; grand outside warden, Mrs. H. C. Yeager of Helena; grand trustees, Mrs. Lewis of Butte, Mrs. Burns of Helena, Miss Mary Pizer of Philipsburg; grand medical examiner, Dr. Holden of Helena.

A ham and egg sandwich, a cut of prime beef or a bowl of delicious soup given away with a glass of beer at Andy Schilling's Capital beer hall, Missoula.

TAKEN TO DEER LODGE.

John Wall, the Well-Known Carpenter, Loses His Mind.

John Wall, a carpenter who has made Anaconda his home for several years, was taken to Deer Lodge yesterday to be examined by proper officers as to his sanity. He has been acting very queer of late and his friends thought it would be best to have him sent to Warm Springs, where he would receive proper treatment. Dr. Stephens, the county physician, was consulted and after examining Wall, advised that he be taken before the district judge at once, and Constable Buchanan took the afflicted man to the county seat on the afternoon train. Last winter he had a severe attack of la grippe. Before the attack he was always a hard worker—since then he has been a poor worker, in fact, no one would keep him on the payroll very long.

Two months ago Mrs. Wall noticed that something was the matter with her husband, as he seemed to have a hatred for their oldest child and he showed other insane symptoms until she began to get afraid of him. She packed up her household goods in their house on Alder street and shipped them to Granite, and then took her three children to the home of her parents in the same town, where they are now. Mr. Wall has many friends in this city, as up to last winter he has always been an active, upright citizen. His parents live in Boston, Mass., and they have been advised of his condition.

For Butte Handballists.

We, the undersigned, agree to play a game of handball with four of Butte City's best players, for silver gold-plated cup, said game to be played on the 4th day of September at Gordon & Leary's handball alley. This game will also decide which are the champions of Montana. Morris Monahan is barred from the above game.

 JOHN BOHAN.

John Maguire's Latest.

The New York Dramatic Mirror of Sept. 2 says: "John Maguire, the old-time actor and Montana manager, was in the Sturtevant house on Sunday with Harry Williams, manager of Katie Emmett, and W. A. Edwards, manager of the Romanay Rye, when Mr. Williams turned to Mr. Maguire and asked him on what terms he would return to the stage this season in support of Miss Emmett. Mr. Edwards laughed at the 'joke,' and Mr. Maguire replied:

"Mr. Williams insisted that he could, and asked Mr. Maguire his terms, which were given. Mr. Williams, who appeared to be the only serious man in the party, soon excused himself and went up to his room, while the matter slipped out of Mr. Maguire's mind. But when Mr. Williams soon returned with contracts he had in the meantime drawn up, upon the terms stated, and requested an appointment on Monday morning for their signature, it was seen that he was in earnest."

"Mr. Maguire signed the contracts yesterday, and will be leading support of Miss Emmett this season, joining the company in Denver. In the meantime he will return to Montana and adjust his business affairs, still retaining all of his western theatrical interests. Mr. Maguire has not acted in 15 years, but there is no doubt that he will renew his excellent reputation as a comedian."

Funeral of C. W. Edwards.

The funeral of C. W. Edwards was held from Sherman's undertaking rooms on Main street yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The remains were first taken to St. Paul's Catholic church, where brief services were conducted by Rev. Father Alloys, and then the interment followed at the cemetery. A large number of friends attended the funeral, about 50 members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen preceding the hearse afoot. Edwards worked for the Montana Union railroad about six years and had many warm friends in this city. He was about 42 years of age. The members of the Trainmen's order had considerable difficulty in locating his parents, but they finally learned that they live near Des Moines, Iowa. Edwards never spoke of his parents or relatives to his most intimate friends, and it was only by chance that they learned their whereabouts.

On account of the death of our beloved brother, C. W. Edwards, we have to declare the ball of the 13th inst. off. All members of Copper City lodge No. 333, Brotherhood Railway Trainmen, will refund the money for tickets already sold. Arrangement committee.
